The Doorway

As each passes through the way,
Let him think what these doors have held;
Let him see the work as it lies behind
And judge if he did it well;

Let his hear the words of teaching,
As they echo through the halls;
Let him stand upon the threshold—
Let him feel proud, secure, and tall.

Dedication

To Stanley M. Robinson, we, the Class of 1967, say "thank you". Thank you for your time, your effort, your help, your friendliness, and your genuine interest. To you, we dedicate our yearbook. May it symbolize our gratitude and respect. May it serve as an inspiration, showing you our spirit and our hopes. May it represent the beginning of many fulfilling years at Salem Classical and High School. May it make you happy.

Foreword

To the Class of 1967, a message—

"Happiness is the only good.
The time to be happy is now.
The place to be happy is here.
The way to be happy is to make others so."

To everyone, thank you—

Yearbook staff, thank you for your hard work and never-ending enthusiasm.

Mrs. Madaline Nolan, Mr. Alfred Pasquale, Mr. Joseph Murphy, our advisors, special heartfelt thanks for your invaluable assistance and encouragement. Without you, the 1967 Witch would not have been possible.

Members of the Class of 1967, thank you for being you. So that you may remember our four, long wonderful, hard, fun-filled, important years together at Salem High School, we present to you the 1967 Witch, our yearbook. It is a book of living and learning. It is a book of friendships. It is a book of memories which will serve to make timeless our experiences at Salem High School. It is a book for you.

In Memoriam

Mr. Paul Porochniak

It is with a heavy heart that we must say goodbye to our beloved friend and colleague, Mr. Paul Porochniak. Paul was a dedicated and hard-working man who always put his family and his work first. He was a beloved husband, father, and grandfather, and will be missed by all who knew him. Paul's legacy will live on through the many lives he touched and the positive impact he had on those around him. He will be remembered as a kind and compassionate man who always had a smile on his face and a kind word for everyone. Paul's memory will be honored in the way he lived his life, as a light by which each of us may be guided.

see, we shall strive for satisfaction. After all, satisfaction is the greatest ambition adults. We are in this world at a time when we can do what no one has ever done before. That is what education means—to be able to do what one has by material things, but also by personal satisfaction.

Your Administrators

Mr. Stanley Robinson Principal

Salem Classical and High School

Congratulations to the Class of 1967

You have reached a major milestone in your lives by earning a Salem High School diploma. You have persevered and been successful. Though your progress may not always go smoothly forward you will never lose the credit symbolized by your graduation. You will always have the memories so well depicted throughout this 1967 yearbook.

The Class of 1967 can never lose its place with me—it is number one! The sharing of one brief year together does not diminish the special place I will reserve for a class that has been so loyal, cooperative, and, above all, friendly.

Stanley Robinson

Mr. Joseph E. Murphy Vice Principal

One stage of your life has come to an end and your adult life is in the immediate offing. Your priceless high school days will not be fully appreciated until you have lived a few years in the world of "grownups".

We at Salem High School hope that we have helped to develop your latent ability to cope with the hard world of reality. Remember that your diploma will open many otherwise unattainable opportunities for you, but after the initial opening you must continue to work and work.

Good luck to all and may God bless all of you all of your lives.

Joseph E. Murphy

MR. JOHN M. CONWAY

*Principal
Vocational High School*

Sincere congratulations to the Class of 1967. May the coming years be favorable to all. Tremendous challenges are ahead. Meet them with confidence. It has been said that education is truly a chest of tools. Use them wisely and the future will be yours to enjoy.

John M. Conway

MR. PHILIP J. BROWN
Director of Guidance

My sincere congratulations to you, the members of the Class of 1967. You have shown during your years at Salem High School that you have been endowed with many God-given gifts: ability, integrity, loyalty, charity, courage, and faith in the future. Make the most of these attributes and you will contribute much to the welfare of your family, your community, and your country.

Philip J. Brown

MR. LAWRENCE J. FITZPATRICK
Superintendent of Schools

I congratulate the splendid members of the Class of 1967 of Salem Classical and Vocational High Schools, and I wish each member of that excellent Class every deserved success and happiness in the future. I am hopeful that as many members of the Class as possible will take advantage of every opportunity to continue their education at institutions of higher learning.

To the faculty of Salem Classical and High School

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops."

Your influence, your encouragement, your guidance, your understanding, too, will "affect eternity." It is you who have given us knowledge, advice, confidence, and direction. It is you who have prepared us for the future. The Future is ours, but the Future always reflects the Past. The Past is your teaching.

Skipping Class Again

Mr. Dominic Mizzi – Class Advisor

It has been a pleasure to help the members of the Class of 1967 through your four years of high school training. We have overcome many hurdles, and with your cooperation, we have succeeded. Best wishes to all of you for success in your chosen careers.

Your Class Officers and Advisor

The Senior Class Officers have worked to promote the interests of every class member. They have done their best to give students a voice in class affairs. The 1966-67 class officers have led activities with the belief that it was important to have a happy, prosperous, and memorable year.

Mighty Seniors

We didn't win the game, but it was great! The Peabody High faculty proved to be just a little better at basketball than our teachers, but it was a victory for the Senior Class with a profit of $529. Thank you, faculty! You're terrific!

Girls' Bermuda Trip

Bermuda—beautiful, sunny, scenic. Who could ever forget such an experience? During February, our football team was rewarded for hard work and magnificent games by a fabulous four days in Bermuda. Then, in April, the girls of the European Travel Club spent nine wonderful days there.

The people, the night clubs, the Italians, the flag at Fort St. Catherine, screen doors, rum swizzle parties—exciting times and now, happy memories . . .

Girls, don't forget your 9:00 curfew!

The student council, under the direction of Mr. Frank Nolan is an organization established to increase understanding between the student body and the administration. Various activities include: distributing letters of commendation to honor roll students, awarding trophies to athletic captains, sponsoring assemblies, and improving cafeteria conditions. The student council is comprised of five officers and two elected delegates from each homeroom. These representatives of the student body meet monthly with the principal to discuss school activities.

Junior Class Officers

Junior Class officers for this year were president, Thomas Lawnsby; vice-president, Janice Macheras; secretary, Carol Cook; treasurer, Theresa Chouinard.

The various activities of the Junior Class for this year were both numerous and exciting. It was the first junior class to ever have a splash party, and one where a considerable amount of profit was made. On the agenda also were a cake sale in April and the Prom in May, held at the Thompson Club in North Reading.

As the year came to an end, every junior looked forward to the events and plans of the following senior year, though never forgetting those as a first year upperclassman.

Graduation —

1967

June 9, 1967, a Friday evening and a milestone in our lives—our Graduation. It marked the climax and the end to our four years as students at Salem High School. It also marked the beginning of the future ... It was a perfect night. Best of luck in all your endeavors.

It was a very good year

Senior Reception

A kiss for the Queen

"We're making memories"—the theme of our Reception, perhaps the theme, too, of our class. This was probably the last time we will have been together as a class. There was soft music and a certain enchantment. It was a beautiful ending. Thank you for the memories.

I wonder
Where this door leads
Perhaps to dreams
Perhaps to wishes,
Perhaps to a long hall,
Or a small room
Filled with opportunities.
Perhaps to yet another door—
I know not.
Still, my heart replies,
"I wonder."
